Special Joint Session of Assembly to Be Called Some Time Next Week.

TO FILL THREE VACANCIES

Mrs. Baldy Entertains Her Sun day-School Class-Personals and Briefs.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

President J. R. Perdue, of the City Council, stated yesterday that he would probably call a joint session of the Assembly and Board some time next week.

At this meeting there are three vacancies to be filled—one in the City Assembly, caused by the death of As-semblyman C. C. Cox; one on the School Board, and one on the Board of Water Commissioners. All of these or water commissioners. All of these are from Third Ward.

Up to this time few names have been mentioned for any of these positions. Of course, the candidate who has the endersation of the ward delegation will receive more consideration from the Council for the position of Assemblyman than any one cise.

Mr. Cox's Will Probated.

The will of Mr. C. C. Cox was probated in the Corporation Court of Manchester late yesterday afternoon.
Mr. Cox left everything to his wife,
Mrs. Virginia A. Cox. The winesses to the will were Messrs. S. R. Owens and a Hubit-The Tublet Wins.

At the age of 22 Clarence had good digestion. He had gastric juice that could dissolve doughnuts and turn apple-skins into good blood corpuscles.

At the age of 24 he began to be profuse about the waist and lean backwards. He also began to cultivate several chins. In his new-found pride he began to think it his duty to gorge himself on everything, the good and the bad, for appetite feeds on appetite—and every good thing is abused.

His pictures showed that he took on weight after he put his collar on.

At the age of 25 Clarence marrier and went to boarding. On top of all this, he attended oyster suppers and wine dinners, which reduced the size of his collar from 16 -2 to 15. With still abiding faith in the strength of his stomach he guiped his meals and chewed them afterwards.

At the age of 28 Clarence began to hear an inward voice—a warning from the stomach. After each meal he would feel bloated—and belching became a habit.

He began to be a light eater—and a heavy thinker. He tried to think out a cure, for new he would sit down at his meals and heavy thinker. He tried to think out a cure, for new he would sit down at his meals without or sight of anything to eat.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The President has appointed the following persons as the civilian members of the inmigration Commission authorized at the last session of Congress:
Charles P. Nell, Commissioner of Labor; Professor J. W. Jenks, of Cornell University, and William R. Wheeler, a business man of Oakland, Cal. The commission is now complete, the Senate and House members having been announced. They are Senators Lodge, Dillingham and Latinier and Representatives Howell, of New Jersey; Bennett, of New York, and Burnett, of Alabama.

The commission is to make a full inquiry into the subject of immigration and report its findings and recommendations to Congress.

It is the understanding that the commission will organize about May 1st. Senator Dillingham, of Vermont, will probably be its chairman, inasmuch as the Senate's appointees are mentioned first in the bill. Money for the work is provided out of the "immigration fund," and there is no limit to the expenditures. The President is also authorized to call an international conference to meet at a place agreed upon, or to send special commissioners to any foreign country to regulate by agreement the immigration of allens and to do a number of other Mr. Robert Trimmer, who lives on the Seven Pines Road, about nine miles below Richmond, has applied to Commonwealth's Attorney Folkes for authority to adopt George Martin, a boy sent to the Reformatory yesterday by Justice Crutchield.
